Names are in alphabetical order with biographies submitted by each candidate.

_____ Jon Barker. Jon is the owner and operator of the U.S. West Taekwondo here in Sandy. He has a military background with strong organization and leadership skills. He is a good communicator, is interested in education and has been active in fundraising and volunteering in the past. He also has experience in budgeting and as a researcher. He is very enthusiastic and dedicated to the Sandy community.

_____ Rodney Barker. Rodney is the Executive Dean at Mount Hood Community College. He is also a small business owner who is spearheading a new innovation directive and will be including Sandy in that. As a property manager and practicing lawyer he would bring invaluable skills to our board. He loves the Sandy Area and has the time and is ready to commit to growing our business community.

_____ Terry Lenchitsky. Terry was the owner of Honke Heating here in Sandy for many years and has passed the management of the business on to his son. He knows what it takes to grow a small business and would like to share his knowledge and enthusiasm with others. He previously sat on the SACC Board for 7 years. He also serves on the Oregon Trail School District Board of Education. He sees working to partner kids and businesses as a key issue in our community. Terry is a good listener and values the input of many to come up with solutions. He also has treasury skills and a lot of past experience in non-profit leadership.

_____ Lisa Foster. Lisa of L.T. Travel has been an involved volunteer with the SACC for many years. Her friendly, smiling face and willingness to step up and work hard have been very much appreciated. She has experience in budgeting, planning, and running a home-based business. She values having a positive attitude, working hard and building a stronger community.
